Dear Mission Agency Representatives,

Thank you for your registrations, stand proposals, project proposals and advertisements. This email will cover some of the other ways you can be involved at ReachOut missions conference in 2017.

If any of the options below interest you, please email Roopa McIntyre - roopsydil@gmail.com.

1. Promote ReachOut 2017.

Tell people about ReachOut missions conference and get them registering. Flyers for the conference have been mailed to most agencies. We'd really appreciate it if you could give those out to people and spread the word. Early bird registrations end this Friday (18th Aug). If you have not received any flyers, please send a NSW mailing address for your agency to nsw@missionsinterlink.org.au.

2. Be interviewed on stage.

Roopa would love to interview new missionaries, current missionaries and returning missionaries on stage at ReachOut. Perhaps someone from your agency back in Australia on furlough. Email Roopa if there is someone suitable in your mission agency.

3. Recommend a book to be on the book stall.

Is there a book relating to our theme "Jars of Clay" that you think ought to be on the book stall at ReachOut conference this year? Perhaps you've read something about cross-cultural mission that you'd like available. Email Roopa and we'll get your recommendations to the book guru, Carl.

4. Play a short, inspirational, Christian video.

At ReachOut we love to include short, inspirational, Christian videos to get people excited about God's work around the world. Videos need to be less than 5 minutes long. Email Roopa with a link to your video.

ReachOut
GOD'S PURPOSE • OUR PASSION

5. Cards with job offers and mission opportunities.

At ReachOut we have a display board for mission agencies to advertise job offers and mission opportunities. You are invited to bring a total of six (6) postcard sized advertisements, three (3) for long-term positions and three (3) for short-term positions to be displayed.

6. Volunteer to help on the day.

Are you able to help us out during ReachOut? We need volunteers for the following roles:

- to collect donations towards the offering for the project
- to be available to pray with people during the mission call in Saturday's program
- to assist with setting up and packing down
